

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are proud to acknowledge the heroic feat of an outstanding Missourian who demonstrated exceptional presence of mind during a life-threatening situation; and

Whereas, Crystal Gall was recently selected to receive the American Red Cross Certificate of Merit, a most impressive accolade presented to her on September 30, 2004; and

Whereas, one of the highest awards given by the American Red Cross, the Certificate of Merit is given for action that exemplifies the highest degree of concern for one human being to another who is in distress; and

Whereas, on February 23, 2004, after her four-year-old son, Parker, was found floating face down in the icy water next to a dock, Crystal Gall began CPR (Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation); and

Whereas, by using the skills that she received in Red Cross CPR and First Aid training, Crystal Gall contributed to saving the life of her precious son:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most sincere appreciation and deepest gratitude to Crystal Gall for her valorous efforts which saved the life of her son, Parker Gall, and in further extending to her our most hearty congratulations for her selection to receive the American Red Cross Certificate of Merit; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Crystal Gall, as a measure of our esteem for her.
